2. I went with [REDACTED] to the Pentagon to discuss with three officers of G-2 our offer of places in the BIC. I described the nature of our course and answered some questions about it. Mulloy explained the enrollment procedure. The officers seem interested and appreciative of the opportunity to send persons to the course.

3. The Reading Improvement Branch currently has 48 students enrolled in one training course and three retention programs. Final interviews are being conducted with personnel who completed the course on 1 May.
